

COPY OF FORM 990

(TO BE USED, OR COPIED, FOR)

PUBLIC INSPECTION ONLY

NOTE

Under Internal Revenue Regulations, tax-exempt charitable organizations generally must provide requesters with COPIES of:

- Its approved exemption applications, all required attachments and any related correspondence with the IRS, and
- Its three most recent annual information returns (Form 990), including all schedules and attachments (but not the names and addresses of contributors).

In-person requests: A member of the public may request to inspect the documents at any principal office of the organization. The entity must provide the information requested that same day. However, if the request places an “unreasonable burden” on the organization, the staff must provide copies of the requested information no later than the next business day after the unusual circumstances cease to exist (limited to a maximum of five business days after the request).

Written requests: Written requests made by fax, mail, email, or overnight service, which include the requester’s address, must be honored within 30 days of receipt.

Website alternative: Instead of providing copies, an organization may make the documents available on either its own or another organization's website. If it uses this option, it has to: (1) provide an exact replica of the document as was filed with the IRS; (2) advise requesters how to access the forms on the web; (3) the site should charge no access fee and require no special software or hardware to download. Organizations that post this information on the Internet still must honor in-person requests to view the applicable documents.

Permissible charges: Tax-exempt organizations may charge a reasonable copying fee, up to $1 for the first page and 15 cents for each additional page, plus actual postage costs.

Penalties: An organization that fails to comply with the new disclosure requirements may be subject to the following penalties:

- Annual Information Return – Form 990 - $20 per day for as long as the failure continues, up to a maximum of $10,000 for each failure to provide an annual return.
- Exemption Application - $20 per day with no maximum.
- An organization that willfully fails to comply with these public inspection rules can be subject to an additional $5,000 penalty.

Private foundation exempt: The new disclosure rules don't yet apply to private foundations. They must still make a copy of their annual return available for public inspection at their principal office for a period of 180 days after publishing a notice of availability.

Donor Information: Please note that donor information is not open to public inspection and has been excluded from this copy.

Form 990, Part I, Line 19:

Bridgeport Rescue Mission (BRM) is reporting total revenue less expenses of $(1,460,826) on Part I, Line 19 and Part IX, Line 3 for the fiscal year ended 6/30/2022. This is largely due to an intercompany transfer of equity to Bridgeport Rescue Mission Support Corporation (BRMSC), a related organization, for $1,290,557. This transfer is reported on Form 990, Part IX, Line 1 as a grant to BRMSC and is reported on the BRMSC Form 990, Part VIII, Line 1d as a contribution from a related organization. BRM would report revenue less expenses of $(221,826) without taking the equity transfer into consideration.
Additionally, the consolidated financial statements report a total change in net assets of $61,200 between the two related organizations.

Form 990, Part I, Line 6:

Bridgeport Rescue Mission is fortunate to have a large number of unpaid volunteers who perform many of the mission's key program services. The value of these services is not recognized under generally accepted accounting principles or in this Form 990. The use of volunteers for program services results in a significant cost savings for the Mission, but because that value is excluded, the Mission's program service expenses as reflected in the Form 990 are not a true measure or representation of the organization's operational efficiency. If the value of the volunteer services were recognized in the 990 and program expenses, the Mission's true operational efficiency would be much higher.

training. Men and women completing these programs may participate in BRM's Supportive Housing Program, which provided over 25 men and women in fiscal year ending 2022 with transitional housing, case management and educational and employment opportunities prior to their transition to independent living. The COVID pandemic forced the Mission to discontinue traditional emergency shelter services for the homeless, when we relaunched our traditional 25 bed emergency shelter into an 8 bed, COVID protocol, and socially distanced longer term program for chronically homeless men. This pilot program from 2020 has now become a permanent program of services provided to the homeless in coastal Connecticut.

We continued our addiction recovery programs within very strict COVID quarantine protocols, throughout fiscal year 2022 and provided a safe space for nearly 45 men and women on the path to recovery amidst the pandemic crisis. We maintained a residential program curriculum of counseling, case management, work therapy and 15 hours of classroom education weekly, focused on spiritual formation, addiction recovery and life-skills training. Men and women completing these programs may participate in BRM's Supportive Housing Program, which provided over 15 men and women in fiscal year ending 2022 with transitional housing, case management and educational and employment opportunities prior to their transition to independent living.

body. Therefore, this question was answered "no" in accordance with the instructions.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b:

The Form 990 is prepared by an independent CPA firm. It is reviewed in detail first by the Chief Executive Officer and Director of Finance. The Form 990 is then presented to the board of directors for final approval before filing with the IRS.

Form 990, Part V, Line 2a:

Bridgeport Rescue Mission does not file any W-2s as all employees are outsourced from a professional employment organization. Bridgeport Rescue Mission reimburses the professional employment organization for the employees' compensation and the reimbursements are reported on 990 Part VII, Section A and 990 Part IX, Lines 5-10.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

Board members and officers sign a conflict of interest statement annually. The signed statements are reviewed by the Chief Executive Officer and the board chair reviews the Chief Executive Officer's statement. Should any potential conflicts of interest be disclosed, the board member or officer would be asked to refrain from participation in any decision with regard to matters affected by the relationship.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

The Chief Executive Officer's compensation is determined and reviewed by the board of directors using comparisons to third party market data. The review and approval is documented in the board minutes.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15b:

The compensation for the Director of Operations, the Chief Financial Officer and Director of Finance is determined by the Chief Executive Officer and is provided to the board of directors for review and approval as part of the percentage increases in the annual budget process. When a new person is hired for these positions, the Chief Executive Officer compares third party market data in determining the offered compensation. The board's approval is reflected in the board's approval of the annual budget.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19:

The organization makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements available to the public upon request. Additionally, the organization's financial statements and public inspection copy of the Form 990 are available to view via the organization's website.
